

An Introduction To
“The Declaration Of Suitability for Work with Lifetime Connect
in New South Wales

The attached “Declaration of Suitability for work with Lifetime Connect a legal document which seeks to ensure that Lifetime Connect gives the utmost consideration of its duty of care to all clients. All person’s seeking both paid and voluntary work are requested to complete this document. As stated on the document, the declaration is in accordance with the Oaths Act 1900 and as such a false declaration is an act of perjury.

To complete the statement please write your name and the position you are applying for.

Section (a). Please delete whichever words are inappropriate (ie. “have” or “have not”).

Section (b). If in section (a) you have been the subject of any complaint in these areas, please state the nature, by whom, when and the outcome of the complaint.

Section (c). Please delete whichever words are inappropriate (ie. either “am” or “am not”).

Section (d). If in section (c) you are aware of any other circumstance that may be relevant to Lifetime Connect for the above position you wish to serve in, please include full details.

After completing the statement, please sign and date the declaration in the presence of a Justice of the Peace and then have the Justice of the Peace sign as a witness.

Indicating that you have been the subject of a complaint in the past does not automatically disqualify you from employment with Lifetime Connect. However, it is recognised that Lifetime Connect’s duty of care to clients is of great importance.
